

Nagaland Board of School Education Kohima

NOTIFICATION NO.7

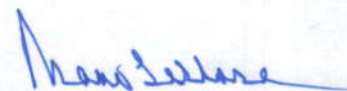

Dated Kohima, the 20th January 2022

NO. NBE-8/Ad-Misc(10)/2021-22:: This is for information of all the institutions registered under NBSE that, the tendency of some schools to submit the internal and practical marks with errors and later sending request for corrections, is being viewed seriously. Such negligence not only reflect poorly on the schools but also lead to errors in the final results which may affect the performance of the students.

The institutions are directed to check the internal/practical/project marks with utmost care and make it certain that they are free from any error before uploading in the prescribed form. Requests for corrections, once it is submitted and received by the Board, will not be accepted.

The schools are also reminded to follow the guidelines for internal assessment and practical examinations/project works so as to achieve and maintain the desired quality of the marks and make them comparable across the different schools in the state. The autonomy given to the individual schools to do the internal assessment and award internal marks presupposes that the schools have the capacity and integrity to award such marks and be helpful partners in realising the objectives of the subjects. Failure to maintain the expected quality in the internal and practical marks due to negligence, casualness, laxity, or sheer unprofessionalism, either with or without ulterior motive, will be considered as violation of trust and misuse of the autonomy.

The schools are therefore reminded of their above mentioned responsibility and to ensure that the internal and practical/project marks awarded by them are valued and honoured by all stakeholders.
