NO.NBE-43/Ad-PARAKH/2026-27/ :: It is hereby notified for information that pursuant to the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 recommendations for holistic student evaluation frameworks, the Holistic Progress Card for the Secondary Stage will roll out under PARAKH-NCERT guidance for all Government and Private schools starting from Class IX in the academic session beginning January 2027.

To prepare schools for its implementation, the Board is organising a compulsory One-Day Orientation Programme in two phases as detailed below:

Phase 1

Date:	28 th October 2026 (Wednesday)
Venue:	Greenwood School, Kuda Village, Dimapur
Time:	9:00 a.m. (registration)
Target Districts:	Dimapur, Chumoukedima, Niuland, Mokokchung, Mon and Peren

Phase 2

Date:	30 th October 2026 (Friday)
Venue:	Regional Centre of Excellence for Music & Performing Arts (RCEMPA), Jotsoma, Kohima
Time:	9:00 a.m. (registration)
Target Districts:	Kohima, Kiphire, Longleng, Meluri, Noklak, Phek, Shamator, Tseminyu, Tuensang, Wokha and Zunheboto

Key Directives for Schools:

1. Attendance: Participation is compulsory for all schools.
2. Participant: Every school shall depute one teacher handling Class IX.
3. Preparation: The participating teacher shall download the Holistic Progress Card (Secondary Stage) and the How to Fill Guide from the Board's portal at <https://nbsenl.edu.in/> and study both before attending. The orientation will assume familiarity with the format.
4. Train-the-Trainer: The participating teacher shall, on return, orient the remaining teachers and staff of the school. Resource material will be provided during the orientation programme.
5. Registration: Schools shall register the participant on or before 25th September 2026 through the Google Form at <https://forms.gle/W6AMdXSBwPtARNr16>

Institutions are to bear their own travel expenses, as no TA/DA will be provided. Participating teachers will be paid a sitting allowance only. The cooperation of all Heads of Institutions is essential for the successful implementation of NEP 2020 in the State.
